

WINDOW FILM

energy efficiency never looked better

Windows play a starring role in a building's energy performance, accounting for up to 40% of a building's wasted energy if used incorrectly. They should be one of the first considerations in any green renovation, yet replacing every window isn't always feasible.

Solar control or Low E window film can have the same impact on energy as high performance glass, at a fraction of the cost of replacing the entire window.

To find an installer or to learn more, please visit:

wfaanz.org.au

wfaanz
WINDOW FILM ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND